

ARIZONA DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

Timothy J. Cox

Associate Deputy Warden

ASPC-Tucson

Associate Deputy Warden Timothy Cox began his career with the Arizona Department of Corrections in May 1996 when his first enlistment ended with the United States Army. After finishing the Academy, he was assigned to the Globe Unit as a Correctional Officer I. From there, he went on to work at the Douglas, Yuma, and Tucson Complexes, often seeking new opportunities and knowledge. He has held the ranks of CO I, CO II, Sergeant, Lieutenant, Captain, and was promoted to Associate Deputy Warden in April 2014.

Throughout his tenure, he has held positions with TSU, been a staff and Firearms instructor, worked many of the positions the security series offers, and is currently a Team lead for the Sergeant Leadership Academy.

Associate Deputy Warden Timothy Cox holds a Bachelor of Science in Business with minors in Information Technology and Management from Western International University where he graduated Summa Cum Laude. He also holds an Associate of General Science from Cochise College.
